Foreward

For over two years we at Salem High have experienced life in a world at war. The far reaching effects of this titanic struggle have been felt by all of us. Thus, ever conscious of our increasing debt to you, our boys in training camps or on one of our distant fighting fronts, we appropriately designate as our theme . . . . .

Letters to the Boys Over There

Dedication

To Bill, who typifies every student, alumnus, and faculty member who has left school or occupation to aid in the war effort, either on the home front or on one of our nation's scattered battle lines, we dedicate this 1944 Clarion.

Memoriam

A CHAPTER IS CLOSED

In recording the death of James C. Nelson, Principal Emeritus and Registrar of Salem High School, the 1944 Clarion Annual pays tribute to the memory of a true scholar, a great teacher, and a loyal friend. His career from 1914 to 1944, spanned by World War I and World War II, made his work as an educator a singularly democratic service to "Education, the Defense of the State."

ADMINISTRATION

A copy of the report of the investigation of the fire at the
J. J. Jones & Son, Inc., 1000 Broadway, New York, N. Y., April 1, 1944, is being furnished to the Bureau for the purpose of 94-44 and is being retained for the Bureau's files.

Mr. Frank E. Neer

In Mr. Frank E. Neer Salem High School has a dean of boys whose interests are varied. During the morning hours he may be found in room 109 teaching American history. In the afternoon he is either in his private office or the main office performing some of his many tasks. One of Mr. Neer's special hobbies is that of helping students obtain scholarships. This he has enjoyed for about three years, and at present a number of former Salem High students are attending various colleges or universities obtained under his guidance. The dean is also an enthusiastic gardener and some of the fine plants he has raised are true to the cultivation of his gardens on North Church Street.

Salem High School basketball team, 1943-44 school year. Prizes were won at the district and state tournaments held in McMinnville, Eugene and Medford. The team was composed of: Ruth Bain, Helen Boyce, Gertrude, and Maurice Deck.

Snikpoh Dramatic Society, directed by Miss Margaret Burroughs, presented an entirely new type of play entitled, "The Romantic Age," a comedy in three acts by A. A. Milne. The play was one of the outstanding events of the school year and an audience acclaimed it a success. The plot involves Melisande Knowle, played by Barbara Sundet, a very romantic girl who is looking for a lover in the form of a knight. Jerry Leedy played Gervase Mallory who most nearly met her expectations. Other actors and actresses who added much color to the play were Marilyn Hjort as Jane Bagot, the visiting relative; Farrell Rust as the comical, Bobby Coote, young admirer of both Jane and Melisande; Mariann Croisan as the hypochondriac, Mrs. Knowle; Tom Brand as the patient husband, Mr. Knowle; Jean S. as Alice, the maid. Danny McCall played Ern, the village yokel; and David Simpson was Gentleman Susan. Miss Lelia Johnson was the faculty manager of the play.

Snikpoh Play

Civics Club Carnival

Exotic dancers, beautiful girls, waving palm trees and an oriental temple, gave spirit to "Distant Horizons", the theme of the annual production. Queen Marilyn Hjort I from Snikpoh, was the supreme ruler for the production. She was crowned by Bill Reinhart, president of Civics club. Chosen princesses were Joy Randall, Pep club, and Trudie Meier, Que Dice. Other princesses were Barbara Brundidge, Commercial club; Charlotte Mathis, Crescendo; Juanita Culbertson, Art club; Arlene Frogley, Future Craftsmen; Evel Meithof, Future Farmers; Gloria Evensen, Home Economics; Catherine Thompson, Spanish; Geraldine Nelson, Latin; Kathleen Hug, Girls' Letter; Betty Jean Hayes, Philhistorian; Pa Zeller, Science. The production was a great success and a fine place for the skit on China. Second place went to Pep club, who portrayed the South Sea Islands; third place was awarded to Que Dice for an interpretation of Russia. Club Philhistorian received honorable mention for their skit on the home front. Elmond Decker was general chairman of the production and Mrs. Gertrude Smith and Mrs. Pauline Cohen were the advisers.

ORGANIZATIONS

One of the most coveted honors in the school is the Sigma Lambda Chapter of National Honor Society. Membership is based on scholarship, leadership, and character. During the year, the chapter has been very active. A few days before Christmas, the chapter gave a party for the students who are now in the U. S. Navy. The party was given at the home of M. Kinney, vice president. Joy Kinney was the hostess. The Sigma Lambda set a table with a white cloth and a red and white striped awning. Jeanne [ ] was the president. The committee was M. Kinney, H. [ ], and [ ]. M. [ ] was the secretary. Chandler, M. [ ] was the treasurer. M. [ ] was the [ ].

Nurses Club

The girls in the Nurses club learned much about nursing from discussions and by the field trips to near-by state institutions. Each member of the club accompanied the public health nurse, Mrs. Evelyn Rasley, on visits to her patients. They enjoyed a picnic near the end of the year. Officers for Nurses club were as follows: Barbara Williams, president; Barbara Hoadley, vice president; Irene Dalke, recording secretary; Jo Anne Monkman, corresponding secretary; Sarah Morse, treasurer; and Janet Kirk, social chairman. Mrs. Evelyn Rasley and Mr. Frank Neer were the advisers.

Under the advisership of the new art teacher, Mrs. Ruth Sittinger, the art department formed three new clubs. Their skit on China took first place at the Civics Club Carnival. In February they had a Valentine fair. The art department has benefited from the publicity of various clubs their year. Their officers are: Dorothy Saul, secretary, and other two clubs and rating club, Myrna Moor.

Arts Club

Stagecraft Guild

The Stagecraft Guild has made a fine contribution to the extra curricular program of the high school. The members of this organization handle the lighting effects, sound equipment, and projection charge of the stage for the Snikpoh play, Civic Club Carnival, Homecoming, League Rivalry, and other groups the Stage Guild has been active for several weeks. Presidents were Robert Benn, Arthur Engelbart, and Arthur Engelbart. Other officers were Joe Forman, Leo Reed, head projectionist and Jack Wiles, head usher. Mrs. Gertrude

FOOTBALL

Starting the season with ten returning lettermen, Coach Tom Drynan fashioned a smooth functioning team. With a light but fast backfield, running from either a T formation or a single wing, the Red and Black rolled up a total of 83 points over their opponents 71. The Viks scored all but seven of these points in the second halves of their games. High spots of the season included a 7-0 win over the Albany Bulldogs which broke a fourteen game losing streak dating back to November 1941; the holding of the powerful Jefferson Democrats to a Thanksgiving Day tie; and victories over Corvallis, Oregon City, and Astoria. The season wasn't all bright for the Viks, for they were defeated four times. Those members of the squad receiving the block S's were linesmen Don Burlingham, Jerry Langan, Bill Barlow, Noel Worley, Jack Slater, Don Bismell, Melvin Hilticker, Howard Elwood, Don Wilson, Bob Payne, Glen Widdows, and Tom Boardman, backs, Bruce Hamilton, Travis Cross, Art Gottfried, Ray Van Dorn, Les Purcell, Bill Reinhart, Dave Getzendaner, and Everett Staats, and Manager George Gottfried. End Jerry Langan was named to the No-Name League All-Star team and nine other Vikings were given honorable mention.

ing a squad composed of five lettermen, three freshmen and two transfers. Coach [Name] led the Vikings basketball team through the season winning [Number] and losing thirteen games for a record of [Number] 500. In his second year as coach of the Red and Black, Brown's charges scored a total of 780 points to 769 for their opponents. The brightest moment in the season was achieved when the Viks tipped Astoria's Fishermen two straight early in February, 35-32 and 30-25. In an early season game the Salem team also defeated Klamath for the defending state champions. The Astoria series initiated a five game winning streak which included consecutive victories over Astoria, Milwaukie, Albany, and Tillamook. Burlingham was the individual high scorer with 170 points in twenty-six games. Captain Travis Cross followed with 132 in twenty four games, and Don Chapman was third with 101 in twenty-five games. Prospects for next year's outfit are good with six lettermen and two varsity reserves returning.

OH! WHAT A BEAUTIFUL DAY

when the war is won and battleborn wonders transform our peace time living When you'll see as well as hear radio shows right in your own living room when the school bus will drop out of the sky to pick up the children and bring

Dear Rod!

I just want to tell you that I've enjoyed every minute that I've been with you. I miss us. I hope that seems to hit it right.
I'm up at in the navy well such nice times
together than we are now, much better.
Let's always remember the times that we went out to dances. Dear Rod:
I've had more fun. I'm hoping that our friendship will grow into something much greater and larger than that of us.
